COCKTAIL LOUNGE

177 PORTOBELLO ROAD LONDON W11 2DY

Hollywood was different back then. You wouldn't recognise the city today, full as it was of glamorous starlets and roaring parties, fuelled on nothing but punch and champagne. Prohibition had just ended and every night felt like a celebration. As for me, I spent most of the late 1930s in a queue on N. McCadden's Boulevard lining up to get in to the best bar in town. This wasn't some slick and soulless dance club, or a stiff-collared hotel bar but a haven of escapism where the good and great of LA came to flirt with their idea of paradise. Perched at Don The Beachcomber's bar on wicker stools, the room littered with Caribbean flotsam and Polynesian jetsam, you could guarantee rubbing shoulders with the likes of Charlie Chaplin, Orson Welles, Joan Crawford or Buster Keaton. At the time it was the most exotic, glamorous place I'd ever been...

THE COTTON MOUTH KILLER £13

Designed to shake up your palate and clear out the cobwebs, this drink has been lauded as one of the greatest new-wave tiki classics.

Don Q Rum shaken with Wray & Nephew Rum, Apricot Brandy Galliano Liqueur, Blue Curacao, Guava, Apple Juice and Fresh Lime

POLYNESIAN PRINCESS £13

We paired a slice of the tropics with an elegant and sophisticated champagne to create a light, bubbly and oh-so-tasty cocktail.

Finlandia Vodka shaken with Chambord Raspberry Liqueur Watermelon Syrup, Fresh Lemon Juice and charged with Veuve Clicquot Champagne

HELL IN THE PACIFIC £13

A delicious balance of sweet cherry and tart citrus flavours on a base of spirit-forward rum. This punchy cocktail is like a Daiquiri with the volume cranked all the way up. A drink to savour.

Goslings 151 Over Proof Rum shaken with Maraschino Liqueur Grenadine, Fresh Lime Juice and Pomegranate Molasses

TRAILER GROG £13

Our fruity twist on one of the oldest cocktails around, named for the Admiral whose victorious battles would ultimately lead to the naming of Portobello Road. This is how rum has been enjoyed for centuries.

Rum Sixty Six 12 year old shaken with Don Q Spiced Rum, Mango Puree fresh Lemon and Apple Juices and Angostura Bitters

DON'S JARDIN £12

If you could bottle a Latin summer mixed with the fresh sweetness of a spring afternoon in Paris as garden buds turn to full bloom... It would probably taste something like this.

Don Q Cristal Rum shaken with St Germain Elderflower Liqueur Blueberry Liqueur, Campari and fresh Lemon Juice

LA LA LILT £12

How the locals of Tequila drink their tequila – long and full of citrus with a pineapple twist for their good friends across the border.

Ocho Tequila shaken with Pineapple Syrup, fresh Lime and Grapefruit juice, charged with botanical mixer

SUPERSONIC TIKI TONIC £11

A playful rum twist on the classic G & T, this drink has been upgraded by sharp and flavoursome tropical notes and a subtle savoury freshness. Definitely made to make your mouth water.

Bacardi Carta Blanca Rum mixed with Watermelon and Cucumber Shrub, St Germain Elderflower Liqueur & Tonic Water

BASIC BEACH £12

This drink tastes as good as your guilty pleasure playlist sounds and feels as indulgent as the best tropical travel destination. No beach included but you should 100% take a selfie for The Gram.

Don Q Cristal Rum shaken with Midori, Crème de Banane fresh Lime and Pineapple Juice

BANANAVADIER £12

A moreish twist on a bona fide whiskey classic, we've added a dash of tiki-style sweetness to temper this complex and boozy number out.

Evan Williams bourbon stirred with Campari, Martini Rosso Vermouth, Banana liqueur and Salted Caramel Liqueur

PAPER DRAGON £13

Mother's ruin teams up with French chic for the perfect ménage à quatre. This herbaceous, long and bubbly blend of ingredients seamlessly combines complex flavour into a deceptively simple and outrageously good tipple. Be careful, but not afraid.

Ford's Gin swizzled with Rin Quin Quin Peach Liqueur, Trailer Three Citrus Sherbet, Yellow Chartreuse and charged with Veuve Clicquot Champagne.

PEQUENA COPA £12

Trailer's take on a drink the Masters of Rum from Havana Club enjoy with their lunch. A beautifully rich and complex drink that improves with every sip. A little taste of Cuba.

Havana Club 7 year old Rum thrown with Pedro Ximenez Sherry, Grand Marnier and Whiskey Barrel Aged Bitters

JEZEBEL'S BLUSH £13

It's been said that the sweetest ripest peach is always at the top of the tree but whoever coined that particular phrase should have swung by Trailer first. Perfectly sweet, fresh and sparkling and with no danger of tearing a hole in your favourite trousers.

Real McCoy Rum shaken with Crème de Peche, Falernum Spiced Syrup, Fresh Lime Juice all charged with Veuve Clicquot Champagne

ESPRESSO MARTIKI £12

Happiness is a Trailer, seasons are irrelevant and there is no such thing as bedtime. Perfectly spiced rum meets T.H's homebrew coffee with hints of sweet almond and fresh spices from the falernum.

Dick Bradsell's Soho classic finds a Tiki sibling in Notting Hill.

Don Q Spiced Rum shaken with Cross Brew Coffee Liqueur
Taylor's Velvet Falernum and Trailer's Homebrew Coffee

MOUNT PELEE COOLER £12

Revive your palate with this bright-as-a-daisy refresher. Inspired by the French Caribbean and made for steamy TH nights, this is the perfect substitute for a Mojito. Long, sharp and refreshing.

Trois Rivieres Blanc Rum built with Kaffir Lime Syrup, Tiki Bitters fresh Lime Juice and charged with a botanical mixer

LIFE AT SEA £12

A cross between a classic whisky soda and whisky ginger.

We use our own whisky blend which continues to age in-house this tasty number has all its flavours turned up to 11.

Reassuringly familiar yet pleasantly surprising.

Trailer's Living Cask Whisky shaken with Ginger & Lime Shrub, Ginger Bitters and charged with a botanical mixer

TROPIC THUNDER £12

A combination of traditional Caribbean and Peruvian flavours offer the perfect escape as ocean breeze meets tropical heat. You may get caught in the storm, but today's rain is tomorrow's rum!

Aba Pisco shaken with Coconut Rum, Aperol, Pineapple Syrup and fresh Lemon and Guava Juice

CLIFFHANGER PUNCH £12

You may think Stout has no business in the Caribbean, flirting with the local rum but you'd be wrong. This delicately sweet and creamy take on a legendary Caribbean Punch will both sooth your soul and open your mind. Hold on to your taste buds!

Smith & Cross Jamaican Rum shaken with Licor 43, Coco Lopez Coconut Cream and West Indian Porter

JALISCO HEADHUNTER £12

Down in Jalisco they like their food spicy and their tequila with a shot of veredita. Never the purist we've thrown the whole shebang together. Fresh, fruity and zippy, this is one for the agave fans.

Ocho Tequila shaken with Green Chilli Liqueur, Crème de Peche Liqueur, Benedictine, Mango Puree, Coriander and fresh Lime Juice

RASCOLADA £14

We've taken Puerto Rico's Pina Colada and thrown some Jamaican Funk into the mix. The over-proof rum brings out a new layer of flavours while the additional splash of rum gives it a little extra bass. If you like Pina Coladas, you'll love this.

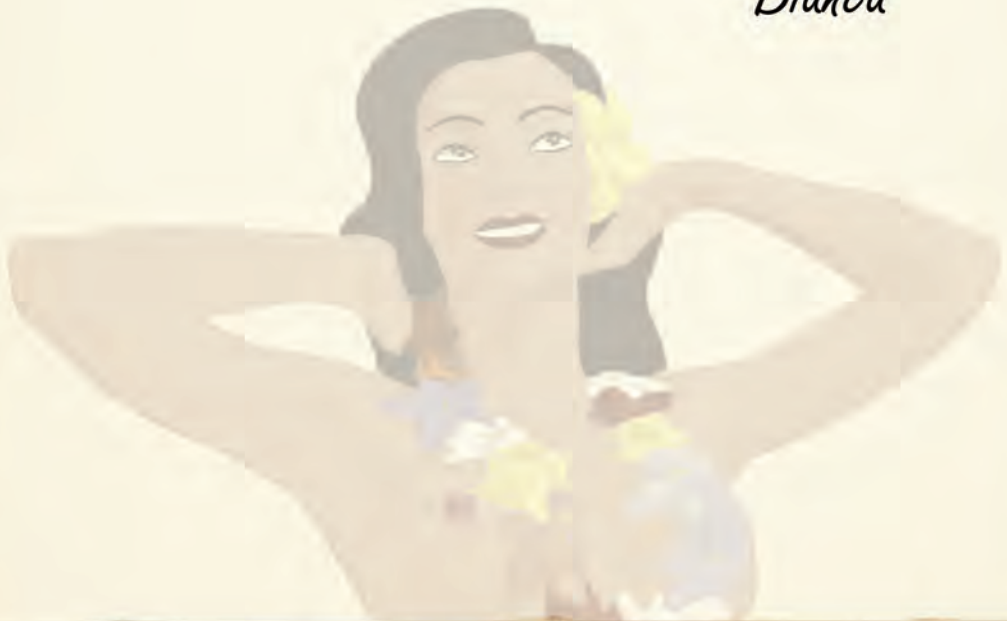

Don Q Rums blended with Coconut Rum, Jamaican Over-proof Pot Still Rum, fresh Pineapple Chunks, Fresh Lime Juice, Coco Lopez Coconut Cream and a pinch of salt

Rum & Tiki Classics

And then there was Donn the Beachcomber himself. Boy did that man know how to paint a picture using only words and a healthy dash of flaming rum. He'd weave together stories of his travels to far-flung lands with cocktails inspired by those magical islands of the South Seas. This was adventure like none of us had ever heard - you didn't exactly get package holidays to the Bahamas back then, let alone Tahiti.

But stories like that, they get inside your head, under your skin. Or perhaps I was just impressionable, thirsty for an adventure. And so, armed only with a napkin that Donn had scrawled bar names on, from Jamaica to Puerto Rico, I packed my bags and left the giddy excesses of LA for the tropics. My trip would take me from Santiago to Havana and every sunny spot in between. It would throw me in the paths of some of the best men and women of their day and it would eventually lead me Notting Hill - Trailer Happiness, where you'll find me to this day as the first face our guests see and the one who says goodnight. In between, hopefully, they find their own version of paradise and joys of escapism.

THE RUMRUNNER £13

This no holds barred 1950's rum classic is a flavoursome voyage for the taste buds. Tropical, fruity with tart citrus and spice.

Trailer Happiness' house rum blend shaken with Chairman's Reserve Spiced Rum, Chambord Liqueur, Crème de Banane liqueur Pineapple Juice, Fresh Orange and Lime Juices, Grenadine and Angostura Bitters

AIRMAIL £12

The Caribbean answer to a French classic, this elegant drink adds a sharp lime bite to the wonderful mix of rum and Champagne.

Havana Club 3 Rum shaken with Honey Syrup, Fresh Lime Juice and charged with Veuve Clicquot Champagne

MISSIONARRY'S DOWNFALL £12

Immensely quaffable, this tippie masks its booze well but what puts this drink in the cocktail hall of fame is in fact its ingenious solution of blending the mint in. Fresh and vibrant... it has to be good for you.

Cana Brava 7 year Rum blended with Crème de Peche, Mint Pineapple and Fresh Lime Juice

PAINKILLER £12

The slightly younger, louder cousin to the Pina Colada, this cocktail immediately transports you to its home, a small bar on a small island in the Caribbean. It's Beautiful... But you may have to swim there.
